ROSA SILBERSTEIN from Hamburg, Germany. While he was in the German Army he stole blankets, canned foods and approximately 25 ration cards which he gave to his mother battalion was not fighting, that is the particular battalion he was with, it was under the command of Adolph Eichmann. His battalion was under the command of Eichmann at Bitterfeld, near the City of Halle, Province of Saxony; and Lubartov, near the City of Lublin, Province of Upper Silesia. He was forced to break gold teeth from the mouths and tear gold rings from the fingers of Jewish and Christian victims ordered killed by Eichmann. He also has information concerning atrocities committed by Dr. Josef Mengele, who now allegedly operates a cafeteria in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and resides at Rosario, Argentina, near Buenos Aires. Felsch claimed to have seen Dr. Mengele in Argentina during his, Felsch's, employment as a merchant seaman.

Felsch stated that he has in his possession a twenty-eight page handwritten story prepared by him concerning atrocities of Eichmann and Dr. Mengele which he desires to have furnished to the Israel Government as well as to any other interested agency. He advised that he has directed a letter to the General Consulate of Israel, 11 E. 70th Street, New York City on January 16, 1961 but has received no reply to date. In this letter he offered to turn his story over to that Government for use at the trial of Eichmann. Felsch said that he desired no personal gain or any special favors or privileges for furnishing this story.

Felsch did note that he fathered a daughter by Rosa Silberstein, who would be approximately nineteen now and who is allegedly with her mother in Israel now. Felsch claimed that he was contacted by an official from the Israel Government from Washington, D. C. concerning his daughter and Rosa while he was incarcerated in Tombs Prison, New York City in 1958.
