REFERENCE(S)

EGMW-11886, 28 May 1962

1. In reviewing the information on Hans Dieter ERNST in response to paragraph 6 of reference, we found that CARETINA listed Hans Dieter ERNST as a fellow inmate of the camp at Vorkuta in the USSR and that as of 1957 CARETINA reported that ERNST was in Leer/Ostfriesland (see EGFA-19090, Attachment E, 26 November 1957). CARETINA categorized his fellow inmates of camps in the USSR under a) suspected of cooperating with the Soviets, b) possibly suspicious, c) "positive," i.e., above suspicion. ERNST fell into the "positive" category which is understandable if he was a member of the SS and the SD, thus having a background somewhat similar to CARETINA, a former Amt IV, RSHA, officer.

2. We are attempting to locate the EGFA-16152 of 10 May 1957 cited in reference. In the meantime, the ODOPAL file on Hans Dieter ERNST is being requested. Reference states that "there seems to be nothing in Headquarters files bearing out the trace submitted in paragraph a, STUT-1341, dated 8 September 1961." We are not entirely clear as to what information in the latter message is not born out in Headquarters files. Please note that DIR-08948 of 30 August 1961 states that ERNST was sought on a charge of having murdered six Americans, thirty-three British soldiers and four British women which is the identical murder charge cited in STUT-1341.
