PERTINENT INFORMATION All the Generals have left Paris now and I have the following impressions of their trip. General PANKAS came, positively, to have talks with the French General staff, and, as I mentioned last time, he also saw General [unclear]. The latter promised him everything on earth, first of all money for his men, but PANKAS did not, in fact, get anything so that many people with whom he has been in touch believe that his trip was a failure. He emphasized VERY much his Catholic line and was the whole time with Father [unclear] and twice with Court Joseph [unclear] with whom he talked about all his plans. It was on PAIFFY's advice that he also wrote a letter to Mr. [unclear] offering a sort of collaboration with the Hungarian Committee in the USA, but this letter was from a very high and shoulder-patting level. General PANKAS was for nearly three hours with Archduke [unclear], and it is obvious that he wanted to "have it out" with him and to prove that he is first fiddle with the many Hungarian Lt-s in Austria and Germany. General HENNYEY, I saw twice. He, as always, made a first-rate impression on me, coolheaded, reasonable and broad-minded - as far as Military people are. He saw Archduke TIC several times and there can be no doubt that the Archduke much prefers HENNYEY and relies more on him. Now, shortsighted Catholic quarters, as for instance this Father KOTANI, who works so closely with PANKAS, want to play it out as a Catholic (PANKAS) issue against the Protestants (HENNYEY) which is idiotic, as HENNYEY is much more Western Christian than the others. HENNYEY did get in touch with the French military quarters but only to get some IHC support and, especially, backing for his social welfare work.
