

PERTINENT INFORMATION

1. American Friends of Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations, Inc. (AABN).

The AABN, which stems from a bloc established in 1943 by anti-German and anti-Communist Ukrainians, has set up a branch office in the USA. Representatives of nine Iron Curtain Countries are represented in the AABN. The Hungarian group is affiliated with the Hungarian Liberty Movement of General Ferenc FARKAS. The Chief of the U.S. Hungarian Group is Gábor ERKÉNYI of New York. This group publishes a monthly known as The Amerikai Magyar Hang (American Hungarian Voice). The Chairman of the U.S. Branch of the AABN is Dr. Nestor PROCTK, an Ukrainian of New York.

2. Hungarian Boy Scouts.

There is a considerable number of Hungarian Boy Scouts living in the USA. This group had its origins in the Scout organization fostered by General Ferenc FARKAS among Hungarian youth who emigrated from Austria and Germany. The Scouts in the USA are well organized, having groups in Ohio, New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. The leaders of these groups are, respectively: Ferenc BEODRAI, Lajos BEDI, Pál JAMBOR and Jozsef PERZES. The Hungarian Boy Scouts in the USA participated in the "Conference of Boy Scout Associations from Behind the Iron Curtain" on 13 May in New York. (This conference was sponsored by the BSA under W. Arthur MCKINNEY).
