3. Agent was born on 19 March 1908 at Laakirchen, Upper Austria, where his father was a merchant (he died in 1950). His mother is living at Schürding. He married on 10 October 1936 at Wilhering, one boy and one daughter origin from such marriage.
4. Agent went to school in Linz and passed his studies in law and political science with doctor's degree at Vienna University (probably in 1932). At that time he was a member of the Christian Social Student Association. It is not known when he came in active contact with the Nazis, but it is believed that this occurred between 1932 and 1934.
5. His employment record shows the following data:
1932 practice with the District and Land Court in Linz;
1933 through 1938 assistant with lawyer Dr. Josef FLAKHOLM, of Linz; 1938 through 1945 Oberregierungsrat with the Upper Austrian Nazi government (military service from 1941 through 1942 and from fall 1944 until the end of the war);
from 1948 economic and legal adviser with Motorenwerk MITTERBAUER at Laakirchen, free-lance journalist, five month employment with HÜTTL's Lambach office, VÖEST, and since 1952 with the monthly "Das Signal". Prior to March 1938 he was also editor-in-chief of the illegal "Oesterreichischer Beobachter".
6. During Nazi time he was Staatsleiter or Gauhauptamtsleiter with the Upper Austrian Nazi authorities. His party number has not been established. With the ordinary SS he held the rank of an SS Hauptsturmführer. For his Nazi activity he was turned over by British authorities on 24 January 1947 (after having been interned at Rimini and Wolfsberg) to Austrian authorities who kept him under arrest until the end of August 1948, first at Klagenfurt, then at Garsten, and finally at Linz. He was finally pardoned by the Austrian
