5. A new rush of Anacin people, the first to arrive since the border opened, has complicated matters a bit. I realize that they do not have the priority of Turtle but already we have a promise of specific answers to Washington cables, and Gallatory and [ ] are utilizing every spare moment in the camps. Furthermore, we have word that Veronal has just returned from New York, and Gallatory is anxious to meet with him in Munich as soon as possible. We have reason to believe that he will have specific answers to a number of positive requests contained in the latest New York procurement lists.
