ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
ACTION: For Your Information 1. Fnu DESSAU (alias) was in New York the evening of 29 May, prior to picking up his wife at Kennedy Airport next day. She was returning from London. DESSAU had called from Washington earlier in the week, and we had made a date for drinks at our apartment and dinner afterward. 2. He had, as usual, a good deal to say; and, as usual, little of it was notably interesting. But that little was interesting, indeed. Speaking of the difficulties caused the so-called German Gaullists by DE GAULLE's own position on Germany, and particularly by GROMYKO's statements following his most recent meeting with DEGAULLE, DESSAU said that this latter meeting had been too much, even for UTILITY, and that as a consequence UTILITY had backed off from the Gaullist views he had held heretofore. Later in the evening, Identity's name came up, and DESSAU said the incident involving Identity had been the decisive factor in pushing UTILITY into the Gaullist camp. He added that Fnu MOELLER (alias) had clashed with UTILITY on Gaullism in MOELLER's being no Gaullist, as is true of most of the Frenchmen with whom he had formerly been doing business. Identity is Gaullist through and through. DESSAU said that he, too, had collided with UTILITY on this issue. 3. For the rest, DESSAU reported UTILITY firmly supporting American actions in the Dominican Republic, and asked what ERHARDT could do to help, both in the Dominican Republic and in South Vietnam. He conceded that the visit is strictly an election gambit, with the Chancellor somewhat at a loss about what to say to the President or Attachment: Identity USC Distribution 2 - C, EE w/a 2 - C, Munich Liaison w/a 2 - COS, Germany w/a 2 - C 2 - C, DO w/a

...has been allowed to choose his own departure date. This still depends, as UTILITY has often said, upon the choice of a satisfactory successor. DESSAU remarked, however, that an unsatisfactory Chancellor (presumably BRANDT) might advance the date.

5. DESSAU is sublimely happy in Washington, and hopes to stay there until compulsory retirement forces him out.

Fleming certainly. His transfer proves that. Can think of plenty others who are dissatisfied with Utility, among them Brock, Ritter, Stum, D. Hensdorf. Don't believe they are organized Fronde, however.

Herb - ideas who?

At least 50% of the people of Lech to are looking forward to the close Utility retire. I think the feeling is general but somewhat. They expect a change but no revolution. Although my impression is that after the change things will be worse. Everyone sees Utility's right to the job. No one will succeed his successor right except the successor.

I pass. Most I can say is that only a Republican is volunteered remarks and they become - side, this should be combined in personal relations.
