

1 April 1968

Dear Tom,

The enclosed letter is self-explanatory. Peg and I had asked Christa and Heinz to visit us last summer. They could not do so because of the move, so that the plan to visit this coming summer along with the Géhlers more or less naturally grew during my last conversation with Heinz. I realize that it sounds a little hairy; however if the old boy is ever going to relax, his post-retirement visit to the United States would be a good time to begin. We have a comfortable old cottage at the lake, plus a small guest house. They will have just about all the privacy they could possibly need.

Suggest you pass my invitation along (if it seems feasible and the right thing to do) about the time Heinz returns from his kur.

Best to all. I understand that you are having a perfectly splendid time and doing a swell job.

Cordially,

Gordon M. Stewart

P.S. Heinz knows that our place is at Dwight on the Lake of Bays. Certainly the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will be able to tell him how to get to Dwight. Once there, he should ask at the general store how best to get to my cottage. This little map may be of some help.
