OPERATIONAL

3. CASUSTAIN/15 provided two written reports concerning her classes with AENOG on 12 Feb 74 and 20 Feb 74, which contain the following highlights:

a. AENOG admitted that he had no photographs of his vacation in Irkutsk to show the class, in spite of the fact that they had presented him with the camera just before Christmas. (Note: As CAS/15 hinted, this is another indicator that the Irkutsk home is a cover story. CAS/15 ~~is~~ also said that she finds it very unlikely that someone who grew up in Irkutsk, as AENOG supposedly did, would have his accent.)

b. The DGB functionary, previously mentioned, is Klaus Nilius (not Mylius). His office phone is at "Neue Heimat." CAS/15 ~~xxx~~ got the numbers: Office: 35 24 60, Home: 552 15 67.

DAVID BROWN
DAVID KRAUL

c. The young American named David, works for a British airline at the airport. (Probably BEA, since there are no others. It seems very strange that the Brits would employ an American on one of their national airlines. This probably gives us enough to put a Forscher on him for identification.)

at Airport.

d. AENOG failed to show up for the class of 20 Feb 74. CAS/15 waited the whole hour, then walked out to see if he was coming, believing that a Soviet always keeps an appointment. AENOG was approaching very slowly, but ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ began hurrying when he saw CAS/15. He clearly had intended to miss the class, but CAS/15 believes that he wanted to get there just at the last moment ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ when he could still get paid for the class. She had no explanation for why he might have wanted to miss the class. He claimed that he had missed three buses in a row.

e. ~~Kraus~~Frau Wollers is taking another Russian course and used her Bildungsurlaub to take a course in politics, possibly as a helper in the election, according to CAS/15's conjecture.

ii. CAS/15 gave me a brochure put out by the CVJM concerning the trips they arrange to the Sov Union.
