STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT, WAR DEPARTMENT
MISSION TO GERMANY
United States Forces European Theater

APO 757

24 April 1946

TO : Baine, Saint, Washington
FROM : Taber, Saint, Amzon
SUBJECT : GEREBKOV, Georg

1. Reference Washington's X4157 dated 19 March 1946 concerning subject and suggesting his arrest and interrogation.

2. Since the receipt of this information subject has been interrogated by an X-2 Senior Intelligence Officer, giving particular attention to his activities since 1941 as reported by Washington. Attached please find the XYZ-1 form which is the result of the interrogation and is not to be construed as meaning that subject is already being used as an agent. His use has been contemplated, but will not be undertaken unless obvious discrepancies between his statements and those of Washington's source are cleared up.

3. You will note the following discrepancies between the two reports: ( a signifies the Washington report; b the interrogation)

1 a) Subject settled in Germany in 1931, soon thereafter acquiring German citizenship.
b) August 1935 went to Germany; nationality: stateless.

2 a) Later enlisted in the Nazi party and became a member of the SS.
b) Was never a member of the RSHA though his work among the Russian emigrants was of necessity directed by the RSHA Amt VI.

3 a) Arrived in France in 1941 as a member of the Russische Abteilung.
b) Sent to Paris in 1940 by Dr. HENGELHAUPT.

4 a) Spread Nazi propoganda against the Soviets, Anglo-Americans and Jews.

b) Professed anti-semitism never caused him to denounce or persecute the Jews. It was based on the principle that it was through the Jews that Communism was brought to Russia; it was then, merely another expression of GEREBKOV's anti-Communism. Subject claims to never have been anti-American, anti-British or anti-French.

5 a) Engaged in attempts to enlist Russian emigrants in the German Army, the TODT and SPEER organizations and for voluntary labor in Germany.

b) Never proposed or caused any Russians from France to be sent to the TODT or SPEER organizations.

4. In view of the above will you kindly advise us of your source and its evaluation. We will also want any further information not included in your earlier report.

5. In addition please trace Paul TSCHELITSCHEFF and General Prof. GOLOVIN, the two U.S. references given by subject. If it appears feasible to do so without endangering subject's security, after you receive the results of record from normal sources, i.e., State, FBI, etc., please have these men contacted directly and questioned regarding GEREBKOV.

6. Your earliest attention to this case will be greatly appreciated.
