5. The C/O in an effort to uncover information regarding Mrs. Laima KUKS, []

[] asked the agent to furnish the names of Latvian organizations and persons living in Austria. He agreed to do so. It is felt that such information might facilitate development of contact with the KUKS. Felkss KUKS [] heretofore was reluctant to talk with []

6. AEKIL0/2 who visited London, Ontario in November 1960 was unable to learn much regarding Egil George LAPENSON [], a recent arrival from Soviet Latvia. LAPENSON, who was formerly in Florida, is now according to the agent residing in Montreal, Province of Quebec. AEKIL0/2 will obtain the address.

7. No positive results have been obtained in acquiring films on Riga from Sweden and Denmark. AEKIL0/2 is still hopeful of obtaining same on loan.

8. The agent gave the undersigned clippings and furnished a copy of a press interview which [] AEKIL0/2 received this information from Karlis DZILLEJA, Secretary General of the Latvian Social Democratic Party who lives in Sweden. Copies of same have been forwarded to the field.

9. AEKIL0/2 was asked to obtain information regarding Ernsts SVEICS, 964 E. 15th Street, Apt. 6, Brooklyn, New York. SVEICS is of interest to the Latvian desk with respect to his relationship to []

10. The C/O gave AEKIL0/2 Russian language copies of questionnaires: Initial Questionnaire; Questionnaires on Education; Residence; Life on MTS, Kolkoz and Sovkoz; Military Service. These questionnaires for the agent's use only are guides as to the type of information we would like to know. Moreover, the agent has been instructed to keep his ear open to any information regarding missiles in the course of his interviews with recent arrivals from Soviet Latvia.

11. AEKIL0/2 turned over his file of DZIMTENES BALSS for July and August 1960. This publication is the principal propaganda organ of the CP to induce Latvians in the West to repatriate. It contains info on activities of many Latvians world wide.

12. The undersigned queried AEKIL0/2 regarding Herbert CIRKURS, a Latvian residing in Sao Paulo, Brazil, who has been named by Pearson and Anderson as being a war criminal. According to one Max Kaufmann in New York who wrote a book on the matter, CIRKURS was
