(1) ERIK HEINE

On July 22, 1963, PD T-1 advised that Erik Heine arrived in Portland, Oregon, on the morning of July 19, 1963, and on the night of July 20, 1963, at 7:00 p.m., he showed a film and gave a lecture on Estonian activities at Pythian Hall, Portland. The film and lecture pertained to guerrilla warfare waged against the Russians by Estonian partisans in 1946. According to PD T-1, the film and the lecture were very much anti-Soviet and anti-communist and contained absolutely no propaganda which could be construed as favorable to the communists or the Soviet Union.

PD T-1 advised Heine departed for Seattle, Washington, on the morning of July 21, 1963, where he planned to show his film and give a lecture that afternoon. PD T-1 stated during Heine's stay in Portland, he was in a position to be with Heine most of the time, and during this period, was convinced that Heine is what he claims to be, and Heine did nothing nor said anything that made informant suspicious of him or any of his activities.
