BS T-1, another Government agency which conducts intelligence type investigations, in May and June 1963 reported that the subject, who was born in Estonia and presently resides in Toronto, Canada, planned to visit the United States for an extensive lecture tour. According to BS T-2, subject's lectures were scheduled to be presented together with a film recently made in Canada based on subject's life story. The film was scheduled to be shown at various Estonian emigre centers throughout the United States. BS T-1 reported that the subject planned to visit Boston, Massachusetts, on June 1 or 2, 1963, where he would contact Karl Haan, Orchard Street, Millis, Massachusetts.

On July 3, 1963, Chief of Police Horace Balkam, Millis, Massachusetts, advised that Karl Haan resides on the estate of Dr. Schmid, 360 Orchard Street, Millis, Massachusetts, where he is employed as a caretaker. Chief Balkam was not aware of any visit to Haan by the subject.

Leading newspapers of Boston, Massachusetts, for the early part of June 1963 were reviewed and no reference to subject's visit to Boston was noted.

On July 23, 1963, Mrs. Araxie Le Vin, International Institute of Boston, Inc., 190 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts, advised she had no knowledge of subject's visit to Boston.

On July 24, 1963, Mrs. Leonella Weber, Executive Officer, Boston Estonian Society, 190 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts, advised she had heard of the subject's proposed visit to Boston. She stated that she never heard that he actually visited Boston and said that he did not visit the Boston Estonian Society.
