MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: HEINE v. RAUS - Slander Suit

Late in the day on 19 January, [redacted] called to report his conversation with Raskauskas. The latter reported that he had just received [redacted] arguments in opposition to Heine's motion that depositions be waived in favor of interrogatories or having the defense pay his way to this country. Raskauskas said that he would comply with the demand for depositions if the date could be changed to between 2 February and 1 March. [redacted] agreed. Thus, even though we had agreed to pay travel expenses for Heine, this will probably not be necessary. In view of the time sequence, we are unsure whether Raskauskas had Heine's authorization to withdraw objections to the deposition.
