Memo No. 458
5 February 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: TSD/GARB/ODS
Attention: [

SUBJECT: Handwriting Identification and Analysis

1. Attached herewith are four pieces of correspondence which are written by an individual who is suspected of possibly being an RIS agent. The language used is Estonian; however, the address was written in English. The addressee himself is in no fashion involved or under suspicion and is simply the receipt of friendly greetings from the individual who is under suspicion.

2. It is requested that these four pieces of correspondence be compared with the samples on record with your office. Your immediate attention would be appreciated as the writer is scheduled to arrive in the USA within the next week or so. Any other comments which you might wish to make will be appreciated.

3. If desired, copies of these may be made for your files. However, the originals should be returned to this office. Further queries concerning the foregoing may be addressed to the undersigned case officer, Extension 7638.
