AB Memo No. 7631
9 September 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, SR/CI

ATTENTION [ ]

SUBJECT : Handwriting and Typewriting Comparison -
Case 5583

REFERENCE : A. Request Memo No. 481, 17 March 1965
B. Request Memo No. 458, 5 February 1965
C. AB Memo 7269, Case 5434-Q,
11 February 1965

1. Reference A forwarded Xerox copies of five handwritten letters (in Estonian) with typewritten translations attached to each and one typewritten letter (in Estonian) and attached translation, all signed "Eerik", and requested that the six documents be searched against the 'Black Album' collection of writings.

2. The five handwritten letters were, in our opinion, written by the same person who wrote the three original postcards and one greeting card, addressed "To Mr. Felix Tamm/2109 Fort Davis St./Apt. 302/Wash. 20. D. C.", which you submitted with Reference B. Copies of these postcards and the greeting card are contained in our copy of the "Black Album".

3. We have not been able to associate the typewritten letter, submitted with Reference A, with any of the typewritten documents in the album.

4. We are retaining Xerox copies of two of the handwritten letters and the typewritten letter, as you suggested, in the album for future reference.
