It is a long time since you were heard from and indeed until very recently we did not know where you were living. My friend, Mr. [redacted], however, asked for my assistance in regard to concerning a national of your former identity. The person concerned is a certain Carl [redacted], of whom I believe you have some knowledge regarding your trips you have made in recent years to the States. I have told my American friends about our past cooperation in operations into the Baltic States including Estonia and I have no objection to you discussing with them any aspects of those operations or any of the personalities involved. Recently I arranged for one of my American friends to call on Minister Torma in Repton to ask for his assistance and advice.

The bearer of this letter is a [redacted] who is dealing with the special matter of Haine on behalf of his service. I would very much appreciate it if you would give him all the assistance in your power. This letter is being written in his presence in London and we have agreed between us that, if necessary, he will ask you to come back to London with him for discussions with me. I hope that this will not be necessary and that you will be able to complete the job in Augsburg. If you have any doubts about

... I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often.
