6. Upon their return from Hungary, we plan to use [] and [] to implement our recruiting program by investigating a pool of potential agents hitherto untapped. Through a certain Janos GNANDT, [] and [] learned that the ex-Hungarista general, Arpad HENNEI, leader of the extreme right "Hungarista" movements, is still in touch with former members of his party and is presently compiling a list of all the "Hungarista" who are determined to remain in Europe and engage in sabotage or intelligence work should war break out. Because of their friendship with Gesa ALFELDY, one of General HENNEI's adherents, and their old Arrow Cross background, [] and [] will be in a position, we hope, to learn the names and addresses of HENNEI's contacts without revealing their American connections. They would then then collect biographical data and assess the value of all likely individuals with the idea of making individual approaches for our work or VLKIVA at a later date. 7. We wish to emphasize that any such approaches would be made without the knowledge of the Hungarista group and special care would be taken to exclude anyone who might attempt to make political capital of intelligence activity. We are also well aware that [] and [] might possibly try to use us as an agency to provide American backing for the entire group, although their actions and apparent feelings to date would seem to rule out such a possibility. In any case, we realize that the matter must be handled delicately indeed and will proceed with utmost caution.
