DATE: 24 January 1955

FROM :

SUBJECT: Ruth Heusinger

Ruth arrived in New York City on 11 September. She was met at the dock by a friend of her father's; she stayed at his home in Stamford, Connecticut, for a week prior to entering Hunter College. She is attending Hunter College on a Fulbright Scholarship. Her residence is the International House, 500 Riverside Drive, New York City. Ruth has classes in American literature, history, philosophy and French. She has a part-time job working six hours a week as a laboratory assistant to the chemistry professor. In her last letter she said, "the Professor and her staff are very nice."

Ruth spent the Christmas holidays at the home of Professor O. J. Hale, 1867 Winston Road, Charlottesville, Virginia. She had planned to spend a few days with us over the New Year holiday, however, due to the hospitalization of my wife, it was necessary to cancel this visit. We plan to invite Ruth to spend a few days with us over the Easter holidays.

[ ] corresponds with General Heusinger's wife Gerta. They were very good friends during our tour in Germany.
