1. The Grand Mufti of Palestine, Hajj Amin al-HUSAYNI, left Beirut for Damascus on 4 June 1951, whence he will proceed to Cairo. Before leaving Beirut he told members of the Arab Higher Committee office there that he planned to return to Lebanon after Ramadan, i.e., at the end of July or in August.
2. While in Beirut the Mufti stated that he had talked with Col. Adib SHISHAKLI about the recruitment of Palestinian refugees by the Syrian Army. He said that Col. SHISHAKLI agreed to take a few, but stated that the Army could not at this time absorb the fifteen thousand men that he—the Mufti—wants to give him.
3. The Mufti said that he had discussed with high Syrian officials the matter of actually settling refugees in Syria. He said that they were in agreement that all the refugees could not return to Israel even if the Jews were conquered, because the Jews have to live somewhere and could not be forced into the sea; therefore, some refugees should be settled permanently in Syria. Source says that the Mufti, for undisclosed reasons, showed himself extremely anxious to get the refugees out of Lebanon and into Syria.
4. The Mufti said that the U.N.R.W.A. is impotent and will achieve nothing. (Source Comment: The Mufti spent considerable time in Beirut talking with Palestinian U.N. employees and investigating U.N. activities.)
5. The Mufti was also outspoken against the Arab League, challenging it as being a British-inspired group even weaker than the U.N.R.W.A. He said that it must be completely disregarded by all Palestinians and by enlightened Arabs in general.
6. He revealed that one of his chief intelligence sources in Lebanon is Muhammad Nimr ANDAR, who, he said, sends him excellent reports. This statement by the Mufti, says source, angered Amil GHURI, who is a bitter enemy of ANDAR.

7. The Mufti <sup>stated</sup> said that he is opposed to any attempt to resettle the Palestinian refugees abroad, such as in Australia or North or South America, because then they would never return to their homeland. He said that the U.N.R.W.A. is considering the possible resettlement of refugees outside the Arab world and that if anything of the sort is attempted he will call on all the refugees to resist it.
8. The Mufti <sup>stated</sup> said that he was recently approached in Cairo by two "high-ranking" Britishers who <sup>wanted</sup> wanted to know what position he would take in the event of a third world war. He said that he told them that, in view of past British actions, he could not stand with them—that Britain, more than any other power, was responsible for the creation of Israel, and that their interference in Iraq and Jordan had kept the full might of the Arab world from being thrown against the Jews.
9. <sup>According to the Mufti</sup> He <sup>wished</sup> said that the two Britishers wanted to know what could be done to win his support in case of another world war. He said that he told them that there would have to be a British promise of complete neutrality and non-interference in matters concerning the Jews and the Arabs, and assistance in keeping the USSR as well out of Jewish-Arab affairs. He said that he told them that if Britain and the USSR will stay out of it, the Arab world will liquidate Israel, adding that only British connivance in keeping Syria distrustful of Iraq and Jordan has kept the Arab world from doing the job already.
10. <sup>The Mufti stated</sup> He said that he told the two Britishers that Arab intelligence is excellent; the Arabs know what the Jews have, and know that Syria, Iraq, and Egypt (without Jordan) could defeat Israel if the British and the Americans would adopt a hands-off policy. The USSR, he told them, would stay out if the British asked them to. That, he told them, was his price for cooperation in World War III.
11. The Mufti told members of the Arab <sup>Higher</sup> Higher Committee in Beirut that the Pakistani government is trying to get a pledge of British non-interference in Jewish-Arab affairs.
