JORDAN

The Ex-Mufti and Jordanian Politics.

(November 1952)

mil 29385

Further to our P/388 of October 28th 1952, the attached report was produced by the same regular source, who is in close touch with the ex-Mufti. The information was learnt on November 19th 1952. Paragraph 2 in the report quoted above refers.

24th November, 1952.

JORDAN

Political

The Ex-Mufti and Jordanian Politics (November, 1952).

Haj Amin al Husseini, ex-Mufti of Jerusalem, is endeavoring to create a situation in Jordan which will force the resignation of the present Cabinet. This achieved he intends that the new government be headed by ALI HASNA, Minister of Justice in the present Cabinet, who is well disposed towards him. He will then press for the annexation of that part of Palestine now under Jordanian administration to Syria.
