ARAB DENIES AIDING NAZI
Ex-Mufti of Jerusalem Says
He Never Met Eichmann
Special to The New York Times.
BEIRUT, Lebanon, March 4
—Haj Amin el Husseini, former Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, declared Saturday that he had advised Adolf Eichmann on mass killings of Jews in Nazi Germany. He said he never even met the former Nazi, who will be tried in Israel next month.
"The Nazis needed no persuasion or instigation either by me or anybody else to execute their program against the Jews," the Moslem religious leader told reporters here. As chairman of the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine, he was a chiefstay in the Arab struggle against Israel in 1948.
He was replying to reports that he had incited Eichmann.
The former Mufti said he was in Germany at the close of the war to seek refuge from British forces in the Middle East.
