SPECIFIC Contact Report - Fourth Meeting with KIBITZ-15

REF: EGFA-974, 17 March 1953

1. Contact was accomplished in the usual manner at 1500 hours, 25 March. at the Hauptbahnhof Restaurant, Darmstadt. Since [ ] is Zline shortly, [ ] of Mission Headquarters CI/CE Section accompanied [ ] as interpreter. The next meeting was set for 1500 hours, Thursday, April 2nd, at the Hauptbahnhof Restaurant, Karlsruhe.

2. The "personal prerequisites" which KIBITZ-15 outlined in the paper given [ ] at the 12 March meeting were discussed thoroughly. Particular emphasis was placed on his relationship to us. I advised agent that, in order for us to provide him any legal protection under AHC Law 62 and appropriate provisions of the Contractual Agreements after they come into effect, he must have the status of our employee. There was no question, I said, as to his ideological motivation, but he was not a "free co-worker" since we call the action on specific operations. Agent recognized the validity of this presentation and agreed.

3. Providing a PCC is received from Headquarters before our next meeting, I will have agent sign a contract prepared by the Mission legal officer on 2 April. Immediately afterwards we can begin operations, probably approaching first the sisters who nurse in the Soviet military hospital in Karlshorst.
