TO : Chief FBM for SC
FROM : Chief of Station, Heidelberg, Germany
SUBJECT: CAPELIN: Monthly Operational Report
REF :

1. CAPELIN is well established in Munich. His servicing continues to be limited to a small monthly amount of operational supplies and fuel. No payment in money is made.

2. Case officer meets him about once a week. Approximate time of meeting is prearranged. Until very recently meetings with CAPELIN took place in a car, in a park a few blocks from his apartment. Meetings now take place in his apartment. His wife is always sent away for a walk. His landlord, a minor German civil servant whose relatives are all residents of Munich, was told by CAPELIN that [ ] is a friend of CAPELIN, that [ ] was with the American troops who released CAPELIN from the concentration camp, and that he occasionally visits CAPELIN and tries to help him with food and cigarettes. Other occupants of the house where CAPELIN lives are the landlord's wife and teen-age daughter.

3. CAPELIN's sense of security has always been good. Only his wife is aware that CAPELIN is "working for the Americans." His Ukrainian friends know nothing about CAPELIN's contact with the Americans, and CAPELIN never has Ukrainian visitors at his home.

4. CAPELIN knows [ ] as an American intelligence officer; he suspects Ryland to be working for CIC/EUCOM, since he was given a CIC telephone to use in case of emergency to contact [ ]

5. CAPELIN continues to hold the same job in the Ukrainian underground (see HSC/OPS/60, para 2). He is genuinely afraid of the organization referred to in that memo as it has limited
