The information below was contained in OBBA-684, 17 Aug 1953
a [redacted] document on PARSIMONY Meeting [ ] and [ ] The original is filed in PARSIMONY plans.

3. VENUS. This was the first case thrown into the tripartite pot at the beginning of PARSIMONY. The JAVELINS still get the reports on this, but have not indicated any interest for the past year and have not discussed it with either [ ] or [ ] since that time. Neither of the [Belgians] had anything new to add about this case. Not knowing about the [ ] development, they both have the feeling that the interruption mentioned in OBBA-653 is more or less routine, as it had been foreseen in the two meetings beforehand. They feel that a new case officer will be taking over and they are not worried about leaving PETER lie fallow for awhile as they are sure that he will be picked up again. No recommendations for altering the conduct of the case at this time.
