Fort Holabird trace reply, dated Sept 57, contained a "Summary of Information" from the Counter-Intelligence Corps, Munich Sub-Regional Office, APO 403, US Army, dated 21 May 1946, ~~XXXXXX~~ concerning one Edgars LAIPENIEKS, who at that time was in a displaced persons camp in Innsbruck. (DGB was given as approximately 1913) "Subject was allegedly an interrogator at the Gestapo Jail in Riga, Latvia. He was actually seen killing four persons at said jail during interrogations. He was known to have been a most cruel and mean character, known for his mistreatment of prisoners. One Albert GESKE, residing at Displaced Persons Camp, Neustadt, near Holstein, was a witness to the aforementioned information."

NOTE: This should not be read as confirmation of info in STUF 4331. Rather it is highly likely that they both derive from the same source since (leaving cablese aside) the wording is almost identical.
