Latvian Intelligence Contacts

I. SWEDEN

A. SIS

Almost all successful or unsuccessful Latvian operations based on Sweden appear to have been under SIS/TEPPERS control. Section A on the SIS in Sweden has been subdivided as follows: 1) TEPPERS and his coworkers in operational planning, 2) TEPPERS' operational contacts, and 3) miscellaneous Latvian SIS contacts not directly connected with TEPPERS so far as we know.

1) General Verners TEPPERS

In contact with SIS since 1943 according to his own statement. In summer 1948 signed agreement with SIS giving him control over all operations using Latvians from Sweden. His main associates in operational planning have been the following:

a. Aldona TEPPERS, nee CAKSTE, TEPPERS' wife and sister of LCP politician Mintauts CAKSTE, daughter of former president of Latvia.

b. Karlis ZIVERTS, Latvian Pastor, member of TEPPERS' Latvian Assistance Committee in 1945, has since then remained in contact with TEPPERS on intelligence matters according to TEPPERS' own statement.

c. Valdemars GINTERS. Worked with TEPPERS during World War II on evacuation of Latvians from Latvia, broke with TEPPERS and LCP on arrival in Sweden at end of war, again became associated with him in operations in summer of 1948. According to TEPPERS GINTERS lost interest in 1951 and has since then had no operational contact with him or with the SIS.

d. Valdemars SALNAJS, former Latvian ambassador to Sweden, associated with TEPPERS in intelligence since 1945 or before until his death in 1948.

2) Operational Contacts of TEPPERS

a. Spring 1948 was approached by V. GINTERS for aid to following group then planning operation; H. GINTERS, J. LUKINS, F. LAUNAGS, K. BACHS, A. BROMBERGS. Refused assistance.

b. Requested LAUNAGS to join <sup>TEPPERS'</sup> group in July 1948. Obtained from him general biographies on George PUNENNOVS, Janis GULBITIS and Janis JANKAVS. In late 1948 LAUNAGS volunteered to return to Latvia and began training with SIS in January 1949.

c. Recruited Janis ORUNIS for inclusion in operation planned for late summer 1950 by Lt. Karlis VILKANKIS and Peter and Janis ROBESNIEKS. Operation did not take place.

3) Miscellaneous SIS contacts not directly associated with TEPFERS so far as is known:

a. Bruno Janis SAULITIS

Former first lieutenant in Wehrmacht, made 5 parachute jumps for Germans behind Russian lines, returned to Latvia in 1944, ex-filtrated later in 1944, may have made later trip. In 1949 was member of RMB associated with Major RAVITSCH, Captain RUSATS, V. GINTERS, F. LAUNAGS, as well as the SIS, and in Germany with LAMBERGS and A. ENDZINS. In 1950 planned operation returning to Latvia with Hans Joachim VON GERLACH, German national, former AF pilot, working in ASEA Factory in Vasteras. SIS now using addresses and passwords in VALDEMAR contact including some on list given by SAULITIS to V. LAMBERGS in 1950.

b. Major RAVITSCH, Pole, said to be head of RMB group working with SIS and consisting of one representative from each Baltic country and Poland.

c. Lt. Karlis VILKANKIS

See SAULITIS (above.) Suspected by F. LAUNAGS of being in contact with SIS independent of TEPFERS or V. GINTERS.

d. Grigorijs KIKULIS

Head of CE Section of Latvian General Staff until 1939. Subsequently MA to Sweden from Latvia. Served in Swedish Defense Ministry as CE expert during World War II. Believed by some to have had RIS connections during this time. May have been radio contact for Mrs. LEJINS in Sweden during WW II. Believed by LAUNAGS to be main authority in TEPFERS/VALDIK/ZILINSKAS committee. According to VALDIN, TEPFERS suspects he works for the SIS independently outside of the TEPFERS/SIS agreement.

According to LAUNAGS, the SIS used the following training personnel in preparing candidates for TILESTONE BAKER:

JAMBOR encoding and decoding instructor
SIMANSON tradecraft instructor
Captain ANDREASSON, OB and weapons instructor, in charge of all training.

- 5) LUKINS believes the support he received from ROESER in 1946 was actually from the BIS not the FIS (See FIS.)

C. FIS

- 1) J. LUKINS obtained financial support for his 1946 operation from Frederick Georges ROESER, a Frenchman reported to have made almost daily trips to the office of the French NA in Stockholm in 1946. As it was later ascertained that Captain Frederic GOGWELL, assistant French NA in Stockholm had been buying rubles daily in 1946 at above the normal rate, the SIS concluded that LUKINS operation was backed by the FIS although LUKINS stated he believed the BIS was behind ROESER. LUKINS 1946 group consisted of the following: LUKINS, ARINS LAUNAGS, SKOBE, ROBEZGRUNDNIEKS, TOMPSONS, PONZAVS, KONRADS, JUREVICS. LUKINS 1948 group consisted of H. The operation was unsuccessful. The only operational support given it by the AIS was to Boris MANGOLDS and Janis DAIGA (MANGOLDS' brother in law) who were hired by the U.S. Embassy to monitor broadcasts from Soviet ships until December 1947. MANGOLDS then worked for the Swedes, emigrating to the U.S. with all his material in 1948.

The FIS

The FIS's main Lithuanian contact after World War II was and still is BACKIS of VLIK. FIS was also in contact with SIDZIKAUSKAS (through BACKIS, SCUSTELLE of the De Gaulle Movement and Foreign Minister BIDAULT) and with KRUPAVICIUS, both from 1947 to at least 1949. Through BACKIS, SIDZIKAUSKAS arranged the transfer of two Lithuanian couriers to the FIS in 1947 (Jonas KUKAUSKAS-KUKIS and Jonas KUPSTAS) and also turned over SKRAJUNAS in 1948. The latter was accomplished in accordance with an SIS/FIS agreement made after the postponement of TILESTONE ABLE (scheduled for Spring 48 and dispatched Fall 48.) According to the agreement, the FIS was to infiltrate SKRAJUNAS by plane. DEKSNYS was in contact with the FIS directly in arranging this transfer, as well as with BACKIS. SKRAJUNAS continued to keep in touch with the VLIK courier in Warsaw after his transfer to Germany with the other two couriers.

Juris SPADE, nephew of Admiral SPADE, works with FIS according to two sources. According to one source his work is limited to interviews and scanning newspapers. SPADE attended war college in France before WW II. Now located in either Baden-Baden or Paris (P.T.T. Bureau 78, 19 Rue Montevideo, Paris 16e.)

Estra ALERBINGS, daughter of the former Latvian Minister of Agriculture and mistress of E. ROBEZGRUNDNIEKS, educated in France, is said to be working for FIS by LAUNAGS. She recently contacted SILDE in Germany.
