

Colonel YOUNG Phy

On Thursday, 27 June 1957, [ ] called me to inquire as to what information OCL/CIB needed from Security in order to process Mr. LAUNAGS case for PCS travel to Germany. I informed [ ] that I believe [ ] request was for (1) Does Security have any type of information in their files reflecting any investigation on the person contacted by LAUNAGS, and (2) was LAUNAGS true affiliation made known to the person contacted. [ ] stated that their files reveal no derogatory information, however, a clearance was not run, and that LAUNAG's Army affiliation was verified to the person contacted. I informed [ ] that whether this information was all we required or not I was not positive of, and that in view of the fact that Col Young would be back from leave Monday, 1 July, I thought it would be better if [ ] called Col YOUNG then.
