Case 32254 - Employment Assistance for Fred Launaga
/--- /--- /--- #12580 for OO-A/S)

ATTN: Alien Branch []

REFN: Phila. memo 2 May 60 same subject (#12320 A/S)

1. After numerous calls on company executives and personnel officers of various companies in the Lancaster, Pennsylvania area seeking employment opportunities for subject, [] of this office reports that subject accepted a job and started work at the Hamilton Watch Company, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, on 11 July 60, at a salary of $75 per week.

2. Subject is working on the night shift processing orders obtained by a Connecticut silver company which has recently become a subsidiary of the Hamilton Watch Company. The job was offered to subject after the company's psychologist, John Owens, in the Employment Department, had several talks with subject and also ran tests showing him qualified for this type of work. Subject appears quite pleased with his new job. We hope he will remain so.
