DATE OF INFO: November 1950

ORIGIN: Salzburg

EVALUATION: B-2

1. [] while waiting to be sent on a mission by [] became impatient and decided to look around for a job. He visited [] office where he was interviewed by one of []'s employees name Denes Dietrich, a young office worker approximately 25 years of age. Dietrich advised [] to report to a Janos Nemeth, Chief of the Camp Truscott Fire Department. Nemeth, after interviewing [] signed him up as a member of the MHEK and had him fill out application forms for enrollment in the French Guard Company.

2. ^{XP} Janos Nemeth was born on 29 March 1914 at Naszod, Hungary. He is 5'9" tall, slender build, dark brown hair, moustache and blue eyes. He holds an Austrian Identity Card for Foreigners with the number 0411/46; he is married, wife's data unknown, is childless and is now living at DP Camp Hellbrunn, Salzburg. Nemeth is a graduate of a Hungarian military academy, class of 1938. His last rank in the Hungarian Army was Captain. He has lived in the western zones of Austria since the end of World War II. He worked as a handyman with the Hirschberger firm in Steyr, Upper Austria, on highway construction until the summer of 1947 and then as a handyman at the "Hackwerke" at Steyr until the end of 1948. He was subsequently employed at Camp Truscott on the recommendation of ex-Hungarian General Burget. Nemeth is known to be affiliated not only with the ZAKO group but also with the "Hungarista" group of Arpad Hennei.
