

Notes on Call from V. C. Georgescu. 1535 Friday 11 May 1951

1. Rica called and requested that we do everything in our power to postpone the Malaxa hearing which is set for Monday 14 May.
2. He pointed out that Max Ausmitt and Malaxa met at his house and agreed to support a unified grouping of Rumanian refugees. This support to be both moral and financial.
3. Gafencu and Visoianu have agreed to meet at Georgescu's house on Sunday to discuss a unified grouping.
4. It is probable that General Radescu and Gafencu will appear at the Malaxa hearing as character witnesses for Malaxa, and, that Visoianu and Cretzianu will appear as witnesses against Malaxa. Rica believes that if the hearing is held as scheduled all chances of unification between the two factions will be jeopardized.
5. [] asked that this information be given to Frank Wisner as soon as possible.
