CAPRIFORM: Contact with Russian National Minorities.

REF : MGM-A-1165

1. The following outline summary of CAPRIFORM's contact with groups and individual members of Russian national minorities supplements the material contained in reference memorandum, Para. 34. As the groups within each nationality are not susceptible to a clear definition, and as their relations with each other and with other nationalities continually change, a complete study of CAPRIFORM's relation to such groups and personalities must await a detailed debriefing of CAPRIFORM over several weeks, which would be undertaken immediately upon his arrival in Munich.
2. CAPRIFORM is in contact with these groups and individuals:
  - a. Armenians. General DRO and his collaborators, and Armenians without affiliation, from the old and new emigration.
  - b. Azerbaijaners. Members of the MUSSAVAT Party, such as RESUL-ZADE and Mirza BALA. Members of the Berlin National Committee, such as DUDANGINSKI and ALIBEKOFF, and many collaborators of the Committee of minor importance. Such representatives in Turkey as Dr. Mir YAKUB, Mustafa VEKILI, Mirza GOEKKOEL.
  - c. Esthonians. Members of the war-time collaboration government such as OEPK, SOOLA, ANGELUS and JAKOBSON. Esthonian academic authorities. Former leaders of the various "voluntary" Esthonian military formations.
  - d. Georgians. Former members of the Georgian Committee in Berlin such as ALSHIBAYA, KEDIA, and Dr. GABLIANI. The Paris group of the emigration: JORDANIA, GEGECKORI.
