Referring to your private letter, regarding the counter-intelligence (general information) or preparation of revolution in certain time, this matter is very complicated and requires plenty of work, time and money. Without these requirements nothing can be done. I, from my part, can take a risk in this, if it will go thru sure channels. Primarily it should be known what has to be done, that is what will be required from subject. The kind of work and cooperation should be discussed with the subject who will carry on assignments. Settlement of this matter by letters is impossible, because life is dear.

Therefore, if corresponding American authority are interested in that, the principal factor in the matter, I from my side may propose the following:

To call my brother as a tourist from Poland to Argentina and here work out a plan, previously having it from interested party, I know that my brother will demonstrate willingness for he is fit for such job. One my brother-in-law is a lawyer in Vilno, the second brother-in-law is an engineer-technic in Minsk, the third is a "lewdy" (supervisor in woods). In Poland I have a cousin who is a manager in an Electric Power Station. We have many Byelorussians with education and with high positions and they all are our adherents. My brother in Poland has a good position and authority-relations, who in private correspondents often expressed himself against communist exploitation and lives with hope the Bolshevik rule will soon end.

Last time in his letter (my broter) wrote, that he would like to come to me (Argentina) as a tourist for few months if I could help him financially. And I would avail myself of this opportunity to set up a plan for work and on account of that to get some money to help him in transportation.

Otherwise I may go there (to Poland) myself as a tourist, having previously acquired Argentine citizenship, but for me it would be too dangerous, therefore I would gladly support the first variant.

These matter may be discussed broadly, but first we shall know the means which we will have at our disposition.

If somebody has serious intentions, he should present a plan (elements) and than should be established how it ought to be accomplished.
