

MUELLER, Heinrich

EGNA-20830, 10 March 1961

32W-5-2

BfV trace request (including personalia) states that according to a correspondent of the London Daily Mail, MUELLER is still living and it is suspected that he is working for the RIS in some way. According to other information, MUELLER was killed or committed suicide in the last days of the war in 1945 in Berlin and is buried in Standardort Friedhof in Berlin-Neukoelln, Lilienstrasse 35. Allegedly the grave was opened at one time by order of an allied service. The exhumation of the body resulted in proof of MUELLER's death.

Intel Division USAREUR is being queried locally.

EGBA 68025, 22 March 1961

BOB files contain no information on Heinrich MUELLER subsequent to or more conclusive than the MOB CARETINA debriefing reports dated July, August and September 1959. Berlin files contain no information on an exhumation.

MASA 604, 10 July 1951 Info from Heinrich BERGER

...Franz Josef HUBER, former SS Brigadefuehrer and Inspekteur der Sicherheitswache and SD for the Vienna area, a very close friend of Heinrich MUELLER, was recently reinstated into the Munich Police. HUBER and MUELLER had come up through the ranks in the police and remained close friends. HUBER should be in a position to furnish information on MUELLER, if anyone can.

MGLA 12929, 26 August 1952 transmitting reports sent by UPHILL to foreign intelligence services. Following two were sent to the French:

Memo of 25 June 1952: Heinrich MUELLER, former Chief of RSHA Amt IV Berlin, according to information of 1951, is employed in the Ministry for State Security in Berlin, Normannenstrasse. He is a coworker of ZAISSER.

Memo of 25 June 1952: The former Sturmabannfuehrer or Standartenfuehrer in the RSHA, Herbert LANGE, is said to be leader of the SSD for Stadt Berlin. This LANGE, called der grosse schlanke LANGE, was at one time the right hand of former RSHA Chief, SS Gruppenfuehrer Heinrich MUELLER. He is probably identical with Dr. Leo LANGE.

IGKA 1441, 9 June 1948 Debriefing of Dr. Manfred ROEDER

As chief of Amt IV MUELLER supervised the entire RK case. He is rumored to be in the service of the Russians. His wife and son live in Munich.
