e. NEY, Karl : The subject is identical with Karoley NEY alias Carl KIRCHBERGER . The following background is supplied in MAVA 3301 dated 10 August 1949 and MGFA 1875 dated 18 February 1949: NEY (born 9 November 1906 in Hungary) during the war was associated with both Willi Hoettl and Otto Skorzeny . After the war he worked for a while with CIC on Hungarian targets. In 1949, using the name of Carl Kirchberger he went to Italy and made contact with the Italian IS. He founded, with the aid of Hartman LAUTERBACHER (a NJ leader), an organization called the Bolshevik International Organization . It is believed that the subject engaged in intelligence activity in order to finance his political machinations. References include: MAVW-2866 dated 18 October 1950; Report by Roland Leapley dated 4 October 1950 subject, "Zako, General Andras and Group"; and SGB-631 dated 18 June 1948.
