BEFIELD MONTHLY SURVEY REPORT - 15 April to 15 June, 1952

1. General HTNEIGH Activities

At long last the ZRCROWNS and the PBPRIMES are agreed upon the details of HTNEIGH's reorganization and broadening. However, there are still differences as to the methods to be employed in accomplishing these changes. The two major differences are (a) extreme reluctance on the part of the ZRCROWNS to exert any pressure on HTNEIGH leaders which might conceivably result in the withdrawal from the Committee of any one faction, and (b) a desire on the part of the ZRCROWNS to separate the problem of the Committee's reorganization from the broadening problem. The ZRCROWNS seem to prefer to accomplish the reorganization first, without requiring any "commitment" on the part of the Committee to accept a broadening of its structure.

On point (a) [ ] has emphasized the PBPRIME position -- that we have no intention of breaking up the Committee, that, in fact, we are just as concerned as the ZRCROWNS that no action be taken which will result in the resignation of any group within the Committee. On the other hand, we are convinced that certain elements within the Committee will endeavor to test ZRCROWN-PBPRIME mettle, and it is even conceivable that walkouts will occur during negotiations. The PBPRIMES feel, however, that there is a vast difference between walkouts and resignations. J.L.

[ ] has also stated that, in his opinion, the solidarity of the ZRCROWN-PBPRIMES in conducting their discussions will be the key factor in determining the degree of our success. He has stressed the belief that if the ZRCROWNS allow the Committee to know of their concern, the entire venture will be doomed to failure at the outset. He has thus proposed that the following policy be pursued --

In the event of walkouts the ZRCROWN-PBPRIMES will not show alarm but will endeavor to get the walkout parties back to the conference table. In the event that certain parties, or a certain party, state that they will withdraw from the Committee, or proffer their resignations, unless certain terms are met by the ZRCROWN-PBPRIMES, RNLUMPIT and [ ] will take the stand that they are not empowered to act on behalf of their respective governments in such instances but must refer the matter to higher authority for decision. It is [ ]'s belief that if this procedure is followed, withdrawal threats can be postponed throughout the discussions, tempers can be allowed to cool, and compromises can be reached which will not result in resignations.

With reference to point (b), this really represents a basic difference between PBPRIME and ZRCROWN philosophies. The ZRCROWNS work on the assumption, and have so stated on many occasions, that they believe the KMVAHOOS are Orientals residing in Europe and must be treated as Orientals. They feel the best way of accomplishing the end result is to praise the HTNEIGH leaders for the fine work they are doing, give them favors, and then ask them in return to cooperate by agreeing to this or that move which the ZRCROWNS would like to make. [ ] has not found this to be the best way of handling the KWAAHCOOS, at least in the dealings he has had with them. Furthermore, the PEPRIKES are handicapped by the fact that they supply the favors, while the ZRCROWNS do the requesting. It is well and good to tell a KWAAHCOO that one cannot get along without him and then ask him to supply an agent to be trained for infiltration to lobby in behalf of the Committee and possibly distribute some propaganda for his own political party. [ ] has therefore found it a better policy to use an assortment of techniques in dealing with the HTWIGH leaders.

[ ] also feels that PEPRIKES needs with regard to the reorganization and broadening of HTWIGH are considerably greater than the needs felt by the ZRCROWNS. The ZRCROWNS make no secret of their partiality to KWAAHCOO and that they are only going along with the broadening of HTWIGH to please their PEPRIKE partners. We, on the other hand, have attempted to play no favorites in our dealings with the Committee and ask only that the closed shop monopoly be broken so that worthwhile elements outside the Committee can be put to use. Thus, the accomplishment of the Committee's broadening, while important to us, appears to be of minor concern to the ZRCROWNS. It is therefore logical from their point of view that Committee members not be antagonized, especially by the ZRCROWNS, at the time what is now termed "step one" (reorganization of the Committee) is discussed. [ ], on the other hand, feels that unless what is now known as "step two" (the broadening project) is stressed at the outset of the discussions, the Committee will feel that the ZRCROWN-PEPRIKES are willing to accept the reorganization in lieu of the broadening of the structure.

Thus, at this writing we find ourselves faced with the ZRCROWN desire to approach the problem in this manner:

At the outset of the discussions the Committee will be asked to reorganize itself along the lines agreed to by the ZRCROWN-PEPRIKES. They will be told that at some later date the Committee will be asked to consider a broadening of its structure but the Committee itself will be left to deal with this matter and their agreement to the reorganization, or step one, is in no way a commitment as regards the consideration of step two.

[ ] has proposed the following method and has asked KWAAHCOO to present this viewpoint to [ ] while in BGDIDY:

At the outset of the discussions the Committee will be shown a plan for reorganization and a plan for broadening, which would be acceptable to the ZRCROWN-PEPRIKES. They will be asked to deal with step one immediately, and as soon as step one is accomplished they will be asked to act on step two on the basis that "As the Committee is now constituted, worthwhile elements who might contribute toward the liberation of KWAAHCOO are not allowed to work with the Committee, and we expect the Committee to work out a suitable arrangement whereby these worthwhile elements can participate in HTWIGH's activities".

Obviously, the PBPRIMES must gamble on their ability to influence the reorganized Committee to vote in favor of admitting elements which the ZRCROWN-PBPRIMES have already agreed upon ( [ ] and Identity (1) ).

Present relations between ZRMOTAL and RNCASTING lead [ ] to believe that a sufficient number of favorable votes will be cast to accomplish this end. The ZRCROWNS, on the other hand, do not know of our dealings with RNCASTING (in this respect) and probably feel that even the reorganized Committee will vote in disfavor of the Committee's broadening. In [ ] belief, it is not unlikely that the ZRCROWNS are not too much concerned, except that they may be concerned lest a favorable vote induce the XNMALEDICT to withdraw.

Frankly, [ ] has skirted this matter in his discussions with RNLUMPIT. He has emphasized that we do not desire a break-up of the Committee and that we will not accept resignations at the TPCREDO level. On the other hand, he has not stated that if the enlarged Committee voted in favor of a broadening of the structure, and elements wish to walk out in protest, he would be inclined to ask the Committee to reverse its decision, which has been true so many times in the past when the XNMALEDICT has failed to gain its point by legitimate means.

The foregoing is a lengthy explanation, and [ ] apologizes for it. However, it covers the situation completely as of this writing. At the expense of being termed anti-ZRCROWN, [ ] would like to add this one remark.... The ZRCROWNS are not unhappy with the position the XNMALEDICT now enjoys within the Committee. They will allow the PBPRIMES considerable latitude in trying to reorganize the Committee and in broadening its structure so long as these activities do not harm the XNMALEDICT. If the activities hurt the XNMALEDICT to the degree that they complain to the ZRCROWNS, it is [ ]'s belief that the ZRCROWNS will attempt to call a halt to negotiations and, failing this, will let the XNMALEDICT know their true feelings, thereby sabotaging what is purported to be a ZRCROWN-PBPRIME plan. In [ ]'s opinion, it is not unlikely that the ZRCROWNS have already made some moves in this latter direction.

2. HTNEIGH Executive Committee Activities

In order to effect a psychological build-up to the reorganization and broadening of the Committee, [ ] has endeavored to conduct less and less activity with the Executive Committee. In such meetings as those which have been held to discuss routine matters, [ ] has devoted a considerable part of the meeting time to discussion of the Committee's shortcomings.

For example, he has dealt heavily upon the trouble at QKDIMPLE, the difficulties which the PBPRIME government has experienced as a result of XNMALEDICT and HTMELON propaganda advocating an ethnic KMWAAHOO, the lack of discipline in the ranks, and the abuses to which welfare funds are constantly being put.

Great care has been taken not to antagonize the Executive Committee - but to direct attention to the fact that their shortcomings do not assist us in gaining added prestige for the Committee in its backers' eyes.

3. BGFLUME Committee Activities

During the past two months the Press and BGFLUME Committee has shown considerable improvement in the conduct of its work. □ □ has been heaping more and more responsibility upon this group and has attempted to break the domination of the Executive Committee over this body. Various members of the BGFLUME Committee have been given additional responsibility, and an effort has been made to show them that we have confidence in their individual and collective abilities. There are still sharp political differences between the various members, which cause minor eruptions from time to time but, on the whole, this body seems to be bent on showing the Executive Committee that it can work in harmony and do its job well.

A. KMBUMPSY

At this writing KMBUMPSY is in need of a lift. Intelligence from within the country is scant these days, and nothing bordering on the sensational has happened in the last three issues of the bulletin. It is planned to give the next issue a shot in the arm (subject unknown at the moment) to enhance its importance in the eyes of the wire services, etc.

One thing which might be mentioned in connection with the KMBUMPSY is the fact that, while its progress has been slow in the major wire services field (quotes are not infrequent, but great space is not allotted to the bulletin), its rise has been rapid among the other exile papers published throughout the world. For example, it is not unusual to see several KMBUMPSY items published verbatim by various exile papers. This is no doubt due in part to the fact that they are experiencing the same difficulties we are, namely the problem of gathering intelligence material from back of BGCOPSE.

B. QKPALING

The prestige of QKPALING appears to be increasing steadily, and mail received by the BGFLUME Committee indicates that it is gaining wide respect among its readers. The major problem with which we must be concerned in the publishing of this newspaper is one that will be with us constantly; that is the danger of becoming stereotyped and rehashing wornout issues. There is no set method for dealing with this problem. □ □ has simply found that it is a good idea to keep in close contact with the members of the staff and sow editorial seeds which can be developed by the writers as they prepare their material for each forthcoming issue.

4. NTNEIGH Military Junta Activities

Because of our current policy to keep NTNEIGH politicians out of operations as much as possible, this body assumes less and less importance each day.

At this writing the Military Junta is somewhat exercised over the change in Commandants at JEPARSON, but [ ] believes this will pass in time. The problem, which [ ] assumes is known by all, stems from a phone call made to TPCREDO by the HTMELON and XNMALEDICT representatives in JEPARSON at the time [ ] was dismissed. Both representatives implored the Military Junta to visit SGCIDER and to straighten out the DYMAGPIE, which was attempting to take over the Military Junta's functions. It is [ ]'s belief that this might be a good idea when the permanent Commandant takes over, as proposed by [ ].

[ ] believes it would be well to take the Military Junta to SGCIDER, at which time statements already made by [ ], to the effect that the Military Junta does not run JEPARSON and political activities will not be tolerated by DYMAGPIE, can be emphasized by BGFIEND authorities in SGCIDER.
