NAZI WAR CRIMES CLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

- A. Rome reports that ALI KLISSURA arrived from Egypt 25th April 1950 alleged to have conversations with ZOG before departure.
- B. ASL(a) now reports as follows:
 - (a) SAID said he has held long conversation with KLISSURA.
 - (b) KLISSURA claims purpose of his visit here is to demand resignation of present BK party committee and election of new committee.
 - (c) He strongly attacked both PALI and ERMENJE for their dictatorial conduct in party affairs.
 - (d) He apparently convinced SAID that he has no ill feelings against national committee for free Albania.
 - (e) However if he forces PALI to resign from party committee he may next claim PALI's resignation from free committee on grounds that PALI can no longer represent BK on it.
 - (f) K. claims he has been promised by DOSTI that election of party officials will take place within one month and he has announced that if this promise is not fulfilled he will call full meetings of BK at which he will demand resignation of present party committee.
 - (g) He counts on his own great prestige amongst Balle to prevent re-election of PALI or ERMENJE.
 - (h) K. has no liking for British whom he claims to be responsible for present Albanian Government.
- C. No KLISSURA has asked SAID to obtain him interview with ASL(a).
- D. ASL(a) has informed SAID that
 - (a) He is liaison officer to committee only and not to Albanian exiles in general.
 - (b) Such an interview would be construed as interference in affairs of BK.
- E. SAID has been further told to father the idea that there is regular Anglo-American liaison with committee.
- F. Any information K. has to impart can be obtained through SAID.
