DAILY REPORT - MONDAY 11 JUNE 1951

BGFRIEND

1. The details on the supply drop to the re-supply team which is scheduled for the night of June 18 have been received. The mission, which was arranged prior to dispatch of the re-supply team to the field, will be flown at 8-10,000 feet, and a small number of leaflets will be dropped en route for cover purposes. In the event weather prevents the operation or the team members cannot reach the selected drop zones, alternate dates and targets have been determined.

2. [redacted] instructor at the covert school, who has been in this country on emergency leave, is returning to his station. He is accompanied by [redacted] a contract agent assigned to the BGFRIEND covert school as a guard.

3. [redacted] is presently en route to Europe for a field trip which will include a review of the current status of the BGFRIEND and BGSPEED projects.
