SUBJECT: GENERAL—SHAM/OBVERSE/INTEL

SPECIFIC—Letter to AICOMB from Kol CUNI

REF: TRIE 2325

1. On 23 April 1954, AICOMB received a letter postmarked "21 April 1954, Sabac, Yugoslavia," from Kol CUNI. A summary of the items of possible interest mentioned in the letter are given below.
 - A. I became acquainted here with persons whom you recently met. (AICOMB comment: Nave ZEFI and Ded PRELA.) You have probably seen who and what they are. One is from Kakarriq (Lesh) and his house is on the Shkoder-Lesh road. (AICOMB Comment: Ded PRELA.) In that area when one wishes to illustrate a person's unstable character, one says: "He is just like that character who has a house near the read."
 - B. I have had a number of experiences in the past five years. I doubt that I would do some of the things over again. One day, I accepted with enthusiasm a difficult and dangerous mission. To a certain degree, I succeeded in keeping alive "someone's" (Comment: Generally speaking, the Bloku Kombetar Independent, and Gjon MARKAJONI in particular) name and showing that this "someone" was worth something. And if my mission was not crowned with full success, it was a triumph for that "someone" whose good name, because of my mission, has been maintained in the face of derogatory allegations.
 - C. Today, I and my friends, once praised and appreciated, are considered dirt and have been forgotten. We thank the Yugoslav Government for saving us from starvation. I mention these things only to you and will say nothing to anyone else until the day comes that I may talk. There is some hope that I may obtain permission to emigrate. I should know shortly.
2. The above-mentioned letter is attached as an enclosure. It is requested that Headquarters determine, if possible, whether it has been opened for censorship.
