a. Action Reported by Field

1. The clandestine radio maintained a regular broadcast schedule of four daily transmissions with several repetitions after each scheduled program. In addition, tests utilizing two smaller 250 watt transmitters were conducted to note the activity of jammers. The official report on the tests has not been received but unofficial reports indicate little jammer activity on the new additional test transmissions.

2. The radio program covered primarily the incompatibility of the Albanian culture with that of the Soviets; Bastoverov's asylum in the U.S.; the provocations of the Communist Chinese with the resulting military action by the Nationalist Chinese; the petitions of three million people to the UN Special Commission investigating prisoners of war; the Balkan treaty; and the coup of the Greek police against the Communist spy ring.

3. Unless additional personnel can be recruited for the Albanian propaganda staff it may become necessary to decrease the number of scripts used in the radio broadcasts. The Greeks have refused to issue a visa to one prospective Albanian employee and have recently stated that one of the Albanians now employed will not be permitted to remain in Greece. The field is making an effort to obtain a reversal of this action, which is apparently based on a decision by the Greeks not to permit members of the NCFA to visit or work in Greece. Such a decision may make more difficult all of our operations conducted in Greece in the name of the NCFA.

b. Funding Action

Approach by the field to the Greek Foreign Office in an attempt to obtain permission for Mr. Niko Papalio to remain in Greece.

c. Security Factors

No new information.
