Albania
Interview with [ ]

1. [ ] made the following remarks to [ ] on 8 November 1954. It will be remembered that [ ] recently returned to Athens from England where he had been on home leave.

2. He said that he could say unofficially that the attitude of his service toward HTNEIGH was to "leave it alone." The interest of his service in Albania is primarily on the intelligence side; they would leave the propaganda aspects to KUBARK.

3. He stated that the only use he would make of HTNEIGH would be to locate "bodies," meaning agents. One or two operations a year is all he envisages - apparently referring to cross border. He is interested in this only if above average talent is found. He stated that from time to time his office might be interested in interrogating select refugees and he might solicit our cooperation in so doing.
