a. Action Reported by Field

1. The November leaflet mission took place on the night of 23 November. Due to a navigational error occasioned by the necessity for dead reckoning navigation over the Adriatic during a 140-mile leg, the target of Shkoder was misidentified and thirteen boxes, representing 75,000 regular leaflets, 15,000 stamp-size leaflets, and 120 packets of hard goods, were dispatched before the error was discovered. It is believed that these items fell into Lake Shkoder and within Albanian territory although it is possible some material hit Yugoslavia. The balance of the leaflet load was dropped as planned over Burrel, Tirana, Librasad, Korca, Gjinokaster and Valona. A single stream of very inaccurate tracers, plus muzzle flashes from what was believed to be one machine gun, was observed west of Korca. The stream of tracers originated from a position ahead of the aircraft and well below flight altitude. 700,000 copies of the November Shqipëria Digest were dropped. In addition stamp-size leaflets, bearing the NCFA symbol and slogan, and token quantities of hard goods were dropped.

2. The digest contained a cartoon commemorating the 28 November Albanian National Independence Day, and an article on the history of the Albanian fight for freedom from the time of Skanderbeg and the inevitable success of the present struggle for freedom. In addition, the digest carried comment on the Swiatlo defection and the number of Iron Curtain escapees during 1954, the Nine Power London Treaty, and ~~the prominence of the question of Albanian liberation in international affairs with the settlement of the Trieste problem.~~

(Leaflet Drop 23/24 Nov 1954)

b. Security Factors

If some of the leaflets dropped in Yugoslav territory it may result in representations from the Yugoslav Government. However, in 1951, when the wind carried a number of leaflets into Yugoslavia, a Yugoslav representative called the incident to the attention of the American and British Ambassadors with the comment that it was assumed that the leaflets had been produced with the assistance of the Western Powers because of the excellence of the work. No protest was registered.
