a. Action Reported by Field

1. During March the clandestine radio maintained a regular broadcast schedule.

2. The offer of food made to the Albanian people by President Eisenhower on 4 March and its refusal by the Albanian Government on 6 March were the most prominently featured items in the March broadcasts. Other topics covered were the February changes in the Soviet Government, with possible repercussions in Albania; the Fourth Albanian National Loan; and the impending purge of Nagy.

3. The field has submitted the names of several Albanians who are possible candidates for the propaganda staff in Athens. As soon as clearances are obtained these candidates will be interviewed. It is hoped that at least one will have suitable qualifications and can be hired to relieve the personnel shortage which now exists.
