

ROEDER

EAVA-2529 dated 28 April 1953

Contains letter written by HOETTL to Rolf ROEDER, 9 Ruedigerstrasse, Munich 38. HOETTL states that during his hours of forced idleness, he drafted a SCHEIDENBERG article, and he suggests that ROEDER form it into a sizeable contribution and possibly make corrections where necessary. HOETTL intended the article to be primarily for the "Spiegel", but left all details to ROEDER who was either to forward it on to an interested publisher, or return it to HOETTL. HOETTL also asked ROEDER that when writing to Trieste, he should notify Karl that HOETTL would submit to him his latest propositions, and that he (HOETTL) was primarily interested in getting royalties ~~XXXX~~ for the first contribution he wrote for Karl's book. HOETTL was to send the books Karl requested through ROEDER.
