HIS was UJNUTLET case as discussed in February with the result that the agent, under UPSWING instruction, wrote to his KGB case officer to ask for a meeting in connection with legal action pending against him on a war crimes charge. The meeting was arranged, and UJNUTLET was in East Berlin on 22-23 February. His KGB case officer said that all possible assistance would be rendered the agent at such time as his file is actually transferred to Soviet authorities by the German Government (note: apparently the war crime was committed against a Soviet, not a French officer as had been originally believed). It is interesting to note that at this meeting, the first since the agent has been resident in the Federal Republic, a change was made in the communication system of the operation. The agent was instructed in OWVL and is to receive all future KGB instructions and guidance via this system. Details of this change are in a separate dispatch as soon as they are received. No change in the agent's status was made. In reporting this latest data, BRATSKY commented that this is the only RIS case UPSWING has involving OWVL.
