Handwritten scribbles and lines

1. Subject, head of the Rumanian opposition in exile, in the recent period has issued to some of his direct collaborators resident in Italy a series of directives which are to serve as a base for continuing the anti-Communist struggle in which Rumanian political refugees are used. Copies of these directives are to be sent to the opposition leaders still living in Rumania, and to those residing in various Western countries where Rumanian anti-Communist resistance committees have been formed.
2. Subject has and will continue to furnish source copies of these directives. Subject has manifested the desire to come to a more close collaboration with Source.
3. Attached for headquarters only are microfilm copies of the directives in question in two strips of 21 and 69 frames, respectively.
