FALL PASTIME
Agent Description Form

Kaplan 75-242

NAME OF AGENT: CAIRD

Date: 1 May 1948

Case Officer: [ ]

I. INTELLIGENCE VALUE

Miscellaneous OB and economic coverage of a wide field in the Sovzone. Through his business contacts, subject bird-dogs a large number of unrelated subjects for us, and provides more or less consistent coverage of some. On the other hand, using the fate of the Czech representative of his firm as an example, his value as a PASTIME candidate will probably be nil.

II. OPERATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

It is considered that this agent will have no appreciable value under PASTIME, even if he is not either evacuated or arrested. His contacts with Americans as persons and with American business are so close that even if he were not immediately shipped off to the mines, his house and all his connections would be hot. In addition, all his present sources are in much the same position and are not to be counted on as sources of information once PASTIME has come into the picture.

III. TECHNICAL DETAILS CONCERNING RECONTACT

It is my considered opinion that subject and family will have to be evacuated, and that no further use can be made of them in the event of decisive action in Berlin.
