FALL PASTIME
AGENT DESCRIPTION FORM

NAME OF AGENT: CAGE

Date: 1 May 1948

Case Officer: [ ]

I. INTELLIGENCE VALUE

A. Field covered now; value of such coverage

Is presently inactive as a result of our steps to protect him as a long range prospect and not to compromise him with his present CDU colleagues, all of whom are under Soviet pressure. He does keep us advised from time to time on his standing, and the present contact is loose and irregular, the primary goal being to protect his security. His information is high-level political and of a reliable and factual nature.

B. Fall Pastime field and value

Source has been undecided as to whether he would stay in Berlin in the event of a retreat of Western powers or whether he would leave. He seems to think that under a Soviet-ruled Berlin he would be unmolested if he remained unpolitical and merely carried out his relief work duties. If he did choose to stay, he could be of value to us and should be recontacted. Through his wide circle of trustworthy friends he could offer safe-haven, could be used as a letter drop, and even for supplying positive intelligence.

II. OPERATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

A. Present cover

1. Employment - at present Director of a large German Relief Organization in Berlin. He is also on the board of directors for the Berlin CDU. He is a principal stockholder on one of Berlin's daily newspapers.
2. Residence circumstances - Subject lives in a 6-room private residence in the suburbs of Berlin with wife, three daughters and maid.
3. Social - Subject lives a rather active social life. He is constantly either visiting or having visitors. He usually reserves Sunday for his family, however, and can generally be contacted on that day without interference of other visitors.
