POPPE, Nikolai Nikolayevitch (Nicholas)
Aka: KERES, Nicholas

14 October 1955

RI registry file [ ] is on Subject's father, reportedly the greatest living authority on Soviet Siberia and Outer Mongolia, who fled from Russia in 1942 and has since given this country extensive reports on the Far East and Russia.

RI document 32-124-2 dated 28 November 1949, a memorandum for the Chief, Contact Division, OO, signed by Assistant Director for Policy Coordination, reflected that although no formal commitment was actually made to Dr. POPPE concerning the immigration to the United States of his two sons, OPC feels morally obligated to make every effort to bring the two boys to the United States and to have them rejoin their father.
