Source, Operational Data, and Comments:

Subject: Vladimir ZNIDARSIC, was. SIKI

Field Comment: (1) Sources state that there are several Croats now living in Buenos Aires who know subject personally. They suggest that by showing some of them a photograph of subject, the mystery as to whether there are two persons named Vladimir ZNIDARSIC could be cleared up.

(2) Mission files contain no information identifiable with the Leo LISAC mentioned in the enclosed dispatch. However, it is believed that he may be identical with the Zvonimir LISAC mentioned in HAB-W-343. The names of LISAC, PUTIGA and FRANIC were volunteered by sources. None of the information in HAB-W-343 and its attachment was provided them in our request for additional data on ZNIDARSIC.

1. After having received special training in Nazi Germany in espionage activities, subject worked for the Gestapo in Italy from 1941 to 1945. There he was a member of a Gestapo team composed of Dregan PUTICA, Slobodan FRANIG and Leo LISAC. In 1944, these four men went to work at the same time for the Italian Communist Party. Their contact with the Italian Communist Party was established by subject, through one Pedro GUBERINA. GUBERINA was an outstanding Croatian Catholic who had become a Communist and was in Italy at the time.

2. Subject, PUTICA, FRANIG, and LISAC became part of a group of Communist terrorists which in 1945 assassinated some 40 anti-Communists. In 1945 subject also put himself in contact with elements of the British intelligence service.

3. Subject is still residing at 6224 S. Kimbark, Chicago 37, Illinois. He has a sister who is at present in Zagreb, Yugoslavia, where she is directing an organization composed of anti-Fascist females.)
